Tax-Deductible Giving Information

For Austrian Donors

Gifts to this capital campaign are intended to be tax-deductible up to €10,000 annually as a Special Benefit in Austria in accordance with current Austrian tax law regarding charitable contributions to educational institutions recognized as serving the public benefit. Under Austrian law, donations to eligible charities are automatically reported to the tax authorities and included in your tax assessment. To ensure your donation qualifies for tax deductibility, please provide your full legal name and date of birth to the school on the first page of this form. Donors are responsible for confirming deductibility with their own tax advisor and for retaining appropriate documentation for their records.

Your Legal Name: it is important to indicate your legal name on this form for tax benefit filing purposes.

For United States Donors

US donors may make tax-deductible contributions to this campaign through our US partner organization, which is recognized as a tax-exempt public charity under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions made to this organization are intended to be deductible for US federal income tax purposes to the extent allowed by law. Donors should consult their tax advisor regarding the deductibility of their contribution.

Important Disclaimer: This pledge form does not constitute legal, financial, or tax advice. Each donor should consult with their own tax professional regarding the deductibility of their contribution in their jurisdiction.
